Discipline grand cru of yellow wines whose terroir is limited to the hills of Château Chalon. There are wines with a mysterious and legendary name, which alone is enough to make Jura famous. It is the product of attentive care and a secular tradition. Only the "Savagnin" grape variety makes it possible to obtain this unique wine with the particular tastes of "Jaune". During aging (6 years and 3 months minimum), a yeast veil is created on the surface, protecting it and allowing its transformation into Yellow Wine.
