Description is a generic name whose terroir of production is not limited to the town of Château Chalon. It is, like the Chateau Chalon, the product of attentive care and a secular tradition. Only the "Savagnin" grape variety makes it possible to obtain this unique wine with the particular tastes of "Jaune". During aging (6 years and 3 months minimum), a yeast veil is created on the surface, protecting it and allowing its transformation into Yellow Wine.
